

I have heard that you are considering overturning New Jersey's "do not call" list.

Telemarketers are the worst kind of scum. The people of New Jersey overwhelmingly support this list, both through our state representatives and participation. I am aware that it is stricter than the national standard; this is justifiably so. The national standard is already too weak; do not use it as an excuse to allow NJ telemarketers in the back door. If you want to reconcile NJ's laws with the national registry, do so by strengthening the national list.
